

2016 SGBA Annual General Meeting & Conference

The SGBA proudly introduces:

Dr. Fabienne Uehlinger

Med. Vet., PhD, Dipl. ACVIM

Asst. Professor – Large Animal Clinical Sciences

Western College of Veterinary Medicine

University of Saskatchewan

Dr. Fabienne Uehlinger

Dr. Fabienne Uehlinger received her veterinary degree from the Faculty of Veterinary Medicine, University of Bern, Switzerland, in 2002.

She subsequently went to Prince Edward Island, Canada, to pursue a PhD in Epidemiology at the Atlantic Veterinary College. During her years on the island, Dr. Uehlinger also became board certified in Large Animal Internal Medicine and has been a Diplomate of the American College of Veterinary Internal Medicine since 2011.

Following some time spent in South East Asia working for Veterinarians without Borders Canada and as Senior Lecturer for Farm Animal Medicine at the University of Bristol, in the UK, Dr. Uehlinger joined the faculty at the Western College of Veterinary Medicine, University of Saskatchewan, Canada, in November 2014. There, she teaches Large Animal Internal Medicine with a particular focus on food and production animals.

Dr. Uehlinger was a Keynote Speaker at six SGBA Producer Symposiums conducted throughout the province of Saskatchewan in 2015, all of which were successful.

With a special interest in small ruminant health Dr. Uehlinger is looking forward to being part of the SGBA's annual general meeting and conference in 2017.
